

B&B Stefano Colonna is the best choice to enjoy a pleasant stay in Rome. It is placed within a small villa of early 1900 and it is surrounded by a wide and well kept quiet garden. It represents the best choice for who wishes to visit Rome as a tourist, as well as for who needs a comfortable place to stay for a short period of time.

The B&B is located in a historic district of Rome named Pigneto, that has been the scenario of unforgettable movies of neorealism. Pigneto has its pedestrian area, small streets and homes and it is a small town inside the big town. It is one of the most active urban areas of the latest years from an artistic and cultural point of view. There are a several places where to spend a pleasant free time, enjoying the typical Roman cuisine as well as different tastes from the rest of the world.

Pigneto is a triangle among Prenestina street, Casilina street and Porta Maggiore, one of the gates of the ancient Aurelian walls and it is reachable by a few bus stops. Ancient Mausoleo called "Il Torrione" is an historic heritage, it is one of the biggest funeral monument dating back to Roman Age and it is close to the B&B and can be visited by a stroll in the park having the same name.

The owners are very friendly and you will enjoy your stay in a recently renovated building that offers an independent entrance and comfortable rooms in the one of the best located areas to visit Rome.

B&B Stefano Colonna is just 10 minutes away from San Giovanni, Colosseum and historic district. The rest of the city can be visited by the wide range of public transport, the bus stop is just a few steps from the B&B.
